Miri's Day of Mitzvos

A little day full of good things

STARWREN

Miri wakes up and smiles. She says, “Modeh Ani.”

Miri washes her hands. Splash, splash, splash!

Miri wants an apple. First she says a bracha:
“Borei pri ha’etz.”

At the door, Miri touches the mezuz*a*h. She gives it a kiss.

Miri drops a coin into the pushk*a*. That is tzed*a*k*a*h!

Miri helps Mommy set the table. A spoon for everyone.

Miri gives Bubby a kiss. Zeidy smiles: “What a good girl!”

Miri lets a little friend pl*a*y with her doll. Good middos!

Miri stirs the challah dough. A little flour on her nose!

Night is coming. Miri brushes her teeth.

Miri covers her eyes and says “Shema Yisrael.”
Mommy says, “Good night!”

Miri sleeps sweetly. Thank You, Hashem, for a beautiful day. The End.

Made just for Miri

Miri wakes up with Modeh Ani, washes her hands, says her brachos, gives tzedakah, helps Mommy, shares with a friend, and says Shema before bed. A sweet story for little ones.

Starwren

Personalized storybooks where your child is the hero